ABOUT MNIT

Malaviya National Institute of Technology Jaipur is one of the premier NITs, established by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India. The Institute, earlier known as MREC Jaipur, was established as a joint venture of the Government of India and the Government of Rajasthan in 1963. Later in 2002, the college was given the status of National Institute of Technology, and on 15 August 2007, proclaimed as an 'Institute of National Importance' through an Act of Parliament.

At present the Institute offers undergraduate (B.Tech/B.Arch), postgraduate courses (M.Tech/M.B.A./M.Plan/M.Sc.) and PhD to more than 5000 students, in almost all leading fields of Engineering, Technology, Humanities and Social Sciences, Architecture, Management and Sciences. Through the internationally renowned faculty, laboratories with state-of-the-art equipment and excellent infrastructure, the Institute is actively engaged in research, consultancy and developmental activities, besides imparting regular teaching.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences was established in the erstwhile Malaviya Regional Engineering College in 1965. Currently there are nine faculty members in the Department who have specialized in various contemporary areas of Humanities and Social Sciences. Majority of the faculty members hold Doctoral degrees and are engaged in high-quality research and teaching. The Department of HSS has organized International and National Conferences, Summer Schools, FDPs, training and capacity-building programs and many national workshops.

ABOUT JAIPUR: THE PINK CITY OF INDIA

Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan, is a rare example of an 18th century town built after careful planning. It was established by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh in 1727. There are innumerable sagas and stories of the culture, traditions and practices associated with the city of Jaipur. This diverse land of rich culture and heritage is a royal treat for tourists from all over the world. Jaipur is located approximately 270 km south of Delhi and 250 km west of Agra and is well connected to other parts of the country through air, rail and road transport.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The advent of the 21st century and the ubiquitously challenging times have rendered a restructuring of almost all the dimensions of life. This restructuring has transformed our understanding of human existence, science and innovation, religion and human vulnerability. This has posed a unique and unprecedented situation which is compelling researchers to examine the radical transitions and transformations and to explore the ways in which the world society is exhibiting resilience, tenacity and hope.

This is an opportune moment to direct our attention to the diverse strategies that have been adopted throughout the world to cope with the crisis, as also to examine and recommend new measures that can safeguard the human civilization from further threats and risks.

This International Conference will focus on the novel ways in which the globalised world has transformed by restructuring its guiding principles and has displayed resilience and optimism in the face of delimiting forces. The conference and research conclave is an annual event, which involves the collaboration of National Institutes of Technology and some other Institutes across India with an aim to connect academicians and researchers from varied disciplines including, but not limited to, Economics, English, Sociology, Political Science, Psychology, Public Administration, Philosophy, Anthropology, Ethics and Management from all over the world. The Conference has been conceptualized to provide a platform to share cutting-edge research and will be beneficial for exchanging interdisciplinary knowledge, research and outcomes.

We invite authors to contribute their original papers/posters/research-in-progress for presentation in line with the conference sub-themes.

1. Abstract of Paper for Presentation (Online/Offline)
2. Abstract of Poster for Presentation (Offline)
3. Abstract of Research-in-Progress (Offline/Online by Research scholars for the Research Conclave)

Submission of Abstracts of maximum 300 words and five keywords through EasyChair. Click here for detailed guidelines for abstract submission.
