

"Constitutional Conversations: A Report on the Constitution Day Event"

The Hindi and English Press Club, in association with the Electoral Literacy Club, MNIT Jaipur, jointly organized an enlightening event, "Constitutional Conversations," to commemorate Constitution Day on November 26, 2024. The event was held under the guidance of English and Hindi Press Club faculty advisor Dr. Reena Kumari, Dr. Geetanjali Chattopadhyay and the Electoral Literacy Club's Faculty Advisors, Dr. Neetu Kumari and Dr. Manoj Kumar Diwakar.

The esteemed speaker, Prof. Vibhuti Singh Shekhawat, was welcomed with a potted plant, symbolizing growth, harmony, and environmental sustainability. The speaker took an oath by the Preamble of the Indian Constitution, setting the tone for a thought-provoking session.

Prof. Shekhawat deliberated on the Fundamental Duties enshrined in the Indian Constitution, emphasizing their significance in upholding individual dignity, equality, and justice. Following the lecture, a questioning round was held, allowing attendees to engage in discussions, seek clarifications, and explore the nuances of Fundamental Duties.

The event was attended by an enthusiastic audience, including members of the Hindi and English Press Club, Electoral Literacy Club, and other students from MNIT Jaipur. The audience actively participated in the questioning round, demonstrating their keen interest in understanding the Fundamental Duties.

The event was successfully organized by the Hindi and English Press Club team, led by General Secretary Bharat Kumar and Electoral Literacy Club team, led by General Secretary Ankit Yadav.

The event concluded with a felicitation ceremony, where Prof. Shekhawat was honored with a memento, acknowledging their valuable contribution to promoting awareness about Fundamental Duties. Refreshments were provided at the end, offering a warm and welcoming conclusion to the event.

