About Malaviya National Institute of Technology Jaipur

The Institute was jointly established in 1963 as Malaviya Regional Engineering College Jaipur by the Government of India and the Government of Rajasthan. Subsequently, on 26 June, 2002, the college was given the status of National Institute of Technology. On 15 August 2007, it was recognized as the Institute of National Importance through an Act of Parliament. The Institute is fully funded by the Ministry of Education (Shiksha Mantralaya), Government of India.

The Institute lies in the heart of the pink city, imaginatively laid out with a picturesque landscape of 317 acres. At present the Institute offers undergraduate and postgraduate courses (M.Tech. /M.B.A./ M.Plan /M.Sc. & Ph.D.) to about 5000 students, in almost all leading fields of engineering & technology, architecture, management and sciences. Through the internationally renowned faculty, laboratories with state of art equipments and excellent infrastructure, the institute is actively engaged in research, consultancy and developmental activities, besides imparting regular teaching.

About National Institute for Technical Teachers Training and Research (NITTTR), Chandigarh

In realization of the need for training better quality technicians to meet the large scale industrialization of the country, the Ministry of Human Resource Development (the then Ministry of Education), Government of India established four Regional Technical Teachers' Training Institutes (now National Institute of Technical Teachers Training & Research, NITTTR at Bhopal, Chandigarh, Chennai and Kolkata in 1967. The Institute at Chandigarh is one of these four NITTTRs, started in collaboration with Royal Netherlands Government (upto 1974). It was designed to meet the requirements of developing polytechnic education in the northern region covering the states of Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Delhi and Union Territory of Chandigarh. The Institute is registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and is managed by a Board of Governors.

Since June 2001, this Institute has been conducting short term courses in various subjects for faculty of Engineering Colleges in addition to organizing AICTE sponsored Induction Training Programmes.

About the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences

The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at Malaviya National Institute of Technology (MNIT), erstwhile Malaviya Regional Engineering College (MREC), was established in 1965. The Department offers a wide range of courses and runs a vibrant PhD program in English, Economics, Political Science, Public Administration, Sociology and inter-disciplinary research.

The Department of HSS at MNIT currently has nine faculty members who specialise in various contemporary areas of humanities and social sciences. The faculty members are engaged in high-quality research and teaching. They have to their credit various research projects, books and research papers published in reputed national and international journals. The Department contributes to expanding the frontiers of knowledge in Humanities and Social Sciences by regularly organising exciting scholarly activities, drawing on the multiple disciplines, and enriching the entire spectrum of students and faculty.

The Language Laboratory and PG Laboratory of the Department is well-furnished with thirty-one computer terminals and modern software essential for the teaching of undergraduate and postgraduate courses. The Department of HSS has organized four International and National Conferences, one GIAN Course, Summer Schools, FDPs/STCs, and many National Workshops.
